

Schools constructed by Joseph Jingoli wins award

Published: 29-Dec-2009

New Jersey-based Joseph Jingoli & Son announced that three of the New Jersey schools built by the company had been awarded 12 state, regional, and national awards.

The Trenton daylight/twilight high school had been awarded the 26th Annual Reconstruction Awards Bronze, the School Planning and Management: Council of Educational Facility Planners (CEFPI) Economic Impact Award and many others in the year 2009.

The Vineland demonstration school won the School Planning and Management: CEFPI - 2009 Impact on Learning - Economic Impact Award, the International Masonry Institute: NJ Golden Trowel Award: Best in Category, Elementary School.

East Orange Cicely Tyson community school won the International Masonry Institute: NJ Golden Trowel Awards - Special Recognition, NY Construction - Best of 2009 - Educational Facilities.

These facilities had been designed keeping in mind the need for education and recreation.

Based in New Jersey, Joseph Jingoli & Son, Inc. is in the construction industry since 1922.

© World Interior Design Network, World Market Intelligence, 7 Carmelite Street, London EC4Y 0AN,
United Kingdom